Citizen:the foundation stone of
our United States of America.

these truths to be self-evident: That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that to secure these rights,
governments are instituted among men,
deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."

Citizen:active and intelligent participation is demanded of us.

New

Voters: This shall be our guide for citizenship;
to believe it to be our duty to our country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

Citizen:in building a world of peace.

New

Voters: 4-H CITIZENSHIP PLEDGE

Boy: We, individually and collectively, pledge our efforts from day to day to fight for the ideals of this Nation.

Girl: We will never allow tyranny and injustice to become enthroned in this, our country, through indifference to our duties as citizens.

Boy: We will strive for intellectual honesty and exercise it through our power of franchise. We will obey the laws of our land and endeavor increasingly to quicken the sense of public duty among our fellow men.

Girl: We will strive for individual improvement and for social betterment. We will devote our talents to the enrichment of our homes and our communities in relation to their material, social, and spiritual needs.

Boy: We will endeavor to transmit this Nation to posterity not merely as we found it, but freer, happier, and more beautiful than when it was transmitted to us.

ADDRESS: "The Meaning of Citizenship"

New

Voters:

We who have just taken the pledge of citizenship, will strive each day to live up to the obligations and responsibilities for which citizenship in a democracy stands. Today probably more than at any other time in world history we should be aware of our heritage of free speech, a free press, and free religious choice. We aim to stimulate and understand democratic living and practice tolerance, cooperation, and mutual self-help in our homes and in our communities. We have faith that by so doing we will live up to today's challenge of intelligent, loyal, and courageous participation in the affairs of the Nation.
